

TRAINING HANDS-ON HEALERS

This workshop is an introduction to hands-on-healing therapy that is unique and innovative in that it acknowledges and addresses the whole person ~ spirit, mind and body. It teaches step by step, the process of how to acquire and cultivate a healing presence in your hands and heart. Our bodies are wonderfully created systems with the capacity to receive and transmit subtle healing patterns from above. You will feel your hands and heart come alive in this seminar and your potential to assist in the restoration and transformation of a sick friend or family member will become more possible than you ever thought. This seminar is a skill-based workshop where you can learn and apply hands-on-healing techniques. You will learn how to recognize healing patterns within yourself and then observe them in others. You will learn the importance of "ordered intention" and how we help create powerful moments in which people can heal and reestablish health and physical integrity. No previous experience is required. This is one seminar that could change your life forever. If you have further questions please contact us at 423-727-9634. We'll see you at the seminar!

- There is a place of stillness and perception that takes you beyond physical form to subtle energetic states where you can learn to hold your space and field ~ listening for expressions of dysfunction on a host of levels. You will learn to listen to the tissue, emotional and deeper energetic levels. You will learn to negotiate and protect your energetic boundaries.
- Healing structures are inherent in the healthy system. If they weren't, we would all collapse into fragments and fractals.
- Expect a Healing Presence ~ learn to listen to deepen your awareness, and to become a powerful participant in the healing process.

Healing Presence is for the practitioner who may or may not have been exposed to an energetic healing modality yet wants to demystify the ancient basis for many energy approaches and correlate this with leading energetic therapies now prevalent. The purpose is to help attendees acquire skills to deepen their energetic sensitivity, understand how energy functions on the levels of the mechanical, emotional, and spiritual.

- Understand the healing matrix. Take your work to a new level.
- Practice focused intention, resonance, breath, and visualization with touch
- Learn the context of healing patterns at various tissue levels, blocked versus constricted energy, and sequential techniques.

Two Days of Energetic hands-on

- Introduction of the instructors and the class participants with a brief time of sharing on each person's background and reason for taking this course.
